

Celebrate Pro Bono Recap: TN Free Legal Answers

Tennessee's virtual legal clinic, TN Free Legal Answers, provides low-income Tennesseans access to legal advice from Tennessee licensed attorneys via email. TN Free Legal Answers had a very successful Pro Bono Month in October, with many highlights including the following:

Husch Blackwell Cleared the Queue!

The Chattanooga office of Husch Blackwell cleared the TN queue during their firm-wide service event for Free Legal Answers. This service event spanned all Husch Blackwell offices in states with a Free Legal Answers website.

Law Students Plan Virtual Advice Clinics

Law students at the University of Tennessee College of Law, Belmont University Law School, and University of Memphis Law School planned clinics to work with attorneys answering Free Legal Answers questions. At the clinics, students partner with a TN Free Legal Answers volunteer to research and help draft responses, while the attorneys supervise the students.

Training Community Leaders to Make Referrals to TN Free Legal Answers

TN.FreeLegalAnswers.org and other HELP4TN resources were featured as a resource for community leaders helping neighbors in need during the Administrative Office of the Courts Pro Bono and Faith Days training events in Morristown, Chattanooga, Gallatin, and Memphis.

Nashville Bar Foundation Leadership Forum Hosts Training and Clinic

Participants in the Nashville Bar Foundation Leadership Forum worked together to answer questions on TN Free Legal Answers during their pro bono and access to justice training in October.

Over 40 New Volunteers Join TN Free Legal Answers

Our volunteer list continues to grow! Volunteers from large firms, small firms, solo offices, and corporate counsel all volunteer with TN Free Legal Answers. With over 800 volunteers on the site, our clients can receive much needed legal advice on any type of civil legal question.
