

IOLTA Participant Membership in Foundation

In an effort to identify a representative body of “Participant” membership, the Tennessee Bar Foundation Board of Trustees has announced who is eligible to serve as a voting “Participant” member of the Foundation.

Any lawyer licensed in Tennessee who participates in the IOLTA (Interest On Lawyers’ Trust Accounts) program, whether as an individual or as a member (principal, employee, or other member) of a law firm, and who is not currently a Fellow of the Foundation, is eligible to serve as a voting “Participant” member of the Foundation. To enroll as a “Participant” member and for more information, visit the Foundation’s website at www.tnbarfoundation.org.

To enroll as a voting Participant member of the Foundation, complete this form and submit it to the Foundation office.
