

CLC Has Attorney Position Available

The Community Legal Center (CLC) in Memphis, Tennessee, is looking for a lawyer with at least 3 years of experience as a practicing attorney (including a minimum of 2 in immigration). This person will assist Memphis-area nonprofit immigration legal service providers (including the CLC, Latino Memphis, and Mid-South Immigration Advocates) in recruiting, training, mentoring, and supervising volunteer attorneys handling immigration cases throughout the State of Tennessee, Arkansas, and North Mississippi. The right candidate will enjoy working independently and will be able to work evening or variable hours as needed. Some out of town travel will be required. Salary is commensurate with experience.

To apply, send your cover letter, resume, and references to Anne Mathes, Executive Director, Community Legal Center, annem@clcmemphis.org.
