

Calling Corporate Counsel

You're invited to a special CLE opportunity!

Earn 5 CLE hours (including 1.5 of ethics) and attend a Leadership Luncheon featuring remarks by TBA President Bill Harbison.

Join Corporate Counsel from across Tennessee at this unique CLE event in conjunction with TALS' annual conference, Equal Justice University.

Event Details:

Date: Thursday, September 3, 2015

When: 8:30am - 4pm cst

Where: Embassy Suites
1200 Conference Drive
Murfreesboro, TN 37129

Cost: $125

- Book your hotel through TALS for a discounted rate $139/night, including Happy Hour, breakfast & free parking.
- Attend TALS' annual Access to Justice Dinner at the hotel on Wednesday, September 2, 2015, 6:30pm. Tickets are $65 per person.

Register at:

www.tals.org/corporatecounsel2015

TALS is a statewide nonprofit dedicated to strengthening the delivery of civil legal help to vulnerable Tennesseans.

Interpreting Body Language

Presented by Scott Rouse, a behavior analyst and body language expert, who helps business professionals make better decisions in real time using information gleaned from body language in meetings, negotiations, and work with clients.

1.5 DUAL CLE

LGBT Legal Issues Panel

Bill Harbison and Abby Rubenfeld will discuss their historic case before the United States Supreme Court, Obergefell v. Hodges, as well as key legal issues the LGBT community faces.

1.5 GEN CLE

Representing Nonprofit Corporations

Neil McBride, former legal aid executive, will lead a session on what attorneys need to know when representing nonprofit corporations. He will also discuss recent developments in state and federal law.

1 GEN CLE

Participate in a virtual pro bono legal advice clinic

Learn about onlineTNjustice.org and how this innovative, flexible online model can fit into your legal department's pro bono plan.

1 GEN CLE