

Pro Bono Opportunities

ANYTIME • ANYWHERE

All you need is an internet connection!

Online TN Justice (OTJ) is a website where financially qualifying Tennesseans can post questions about their civil legal issue.

OTJ is a joint project of: As a volunteer attorney with OTJ:

- You can log in whenever/wherever you choose
- You can pick which questions you'll answer
- You'll receive a weekly reminder telling how many open questions there are by category
- You have training and resource materials built into site for quick reference
- You're covered by NLADA Malpractice Insurance

Ready to volunteer? Signing up for OTJ is quick and easy:

1. Go to www.onlinetnjustice.org
2. Click "Lawyers Sign Up" at the top right
3. Register

What are the benefits?

- You're anonymous to clients; they will only see "Volunteer Attorney"
- Quick, easy way to help low-income, elderly, and disabled Tennesseans
- Your time spent researching/answering questions qualifies for pro bono CLE credit
- You qualify for the advocate rate for the statewide Equal Justice University conference where you can earn up to 15 hours in CLE credit
