

SCENARIO 2

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF TENNESSEE
FOR THE THIRTIETH JUDICIAL DISTRICT AT MEMPHIS

Jane Doe

Petitioner

v.

No. 2012-12345- 15

John Doe

Defendant

PETITION TO CITE THE DEFENDANT FOR CIVIL/AND/OR CRIMINAL CONTEMPT

1. On January 1, 2012 this court entered an order requiring the defendant John Doe permit the petitioner to have visitation with their children every weekend.

2. On three different weekends, the defendant refused to allow the petitioner to visit with the children.

3. As a result, the petitioner was required to cancel reservations to take the children to Nashville. The petitioner lost her non-refundable deposit of $250.00 because of the cancellation.

4. The defendant's conduct is a willful violation of this court's order, and he should be found guilty of civil/and/or criminal contempt.

Premises considered, the petitioner prays that:

1. Issue Notice to the defendant ordering him to show cause why he should not be held in contempt,

2. At the hearing, the defendant be confined for failure to abide by the parenting plan's visitation provision

3. Petitioner have such other and further relief including the award of reasonable attorney fees, as well as damages for her lost deposit.

Submitted,

Reynard P. Fox, Atty.

FIAT

To the Clerk: Issue notice to the defendant that he is to appear at 10:00 a.m. October 1, 2012 to show cause why he should not be held in contempt of court.

Judge Ima Hardass