Litigation Under the Fair Housing Act

Workshop and Mock Trial

Presented by the Tennessee Fair Housing Council, John Marshall Law School, West Tennessee Legal Services and Crain, Schuette & Associates

Join us for a day and a half of FREE CLE on litigating a Fair Housing Act case. The training will consist of classroom overview of the Act, litigation strategy/prep and a mock trial, with attendees playing roles in the trial and housing professionals and other interested parties acting as the jury. Presenters will include such national fair housing experts as F. Willis Caruso and Michael P. Seng of John Marshall Law School and Stephen Dane of Relman, Dane and Colfax, one of the nation's leading civil rights law firms. Plaintiff and defense counsel alike will find this training useful and fun.

We will request approximately 9-10 hours of CLE credit for this training, including 1 hour of ethics.

Feb. 20, 2014, 8:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m.
