

TN Access to Justice Commission Launches HELP4TN Day 2020

If you need free legal help in Tennessee, organizations across the state are working together to bring resources over the phone and online to celebrate innovation in legal services for this year's HELP4TN Day. While TALS and TALS' alliance members provide free legal help throughout the year, HELP4TN Day marks an annual celebration of the Tennessee Supreme Court's Access to Justice Commission and brings together volunteers from across the state to serve Tennesseans.

There are plenty of resources for those seeking legal help this month. One program promoted throughout the month is TN Free Legal Answers, the online legal clinic administered by TALS. To learn more about Free Legal Answers or to get help online, please visit TN.FreeLegalAnswers.org. There are also phone clinics available from legal aid organizations across the state, with many events linked from the Commission's webpage dedicated to HELP4TN Day.

Attorneys wishing to volunteer for HELP4TN Day can do so through TN Free Legal Answers and are also encouraged to contact their local legal aid program to volunteer.

For more information, can read the press release in its entirety here, and visit the Commission's website here.
