

Memphis' Law School Hosts Virtual Legal Advice Clinic

Memphis (October 23, 2014) - The University of Memphis Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law hosted their first Virtual Legal Advice Clinic. Attorneys who are registered volunteers with the Online TN Justice site worked with law students to answer vulnerable Tennesseans' civil legal questions. Over 20 attorneys and law students worked together to answer seventeen civil legal questions posted to Tennessee's virtual legal clinic. Attorneys were able to share their knowledge and experience to assist students in thinking through the real-world civil legal issues. See photos from the event here.
