- Organize and present community education sessions.
- Analyze and maintain up-to-date organizational policy data to report on programs and monitor trends.

- Attend community meetings and events on behalf of the commission and report back to the Executive Director, staff and commissioners regarding data gathered at events.
- Participate in long and short term program development and planning.
- Perform needs analysis studies, through questionnaires and community listening sessions to identify specific needs for programs and/or policy recommendations.
- Responsible for all public facing platforms such as social media, the department's website, email marketing, etc.
- Manage Title VI coordinators, review complaints, and assist with Title VI trainings.
- Oversee day to day implementation of organizational programs.
- Writes reports as necessary and communicates with administration.
- MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:
- Bachelor's Degree in related field and two (2) years of experience in the areas of human relations, community relations, or community organization or related area.
- LICENSES REQUIRED:
- Valid "Class D" driver's license
- PREFERRED EXPERIENCE, KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND ABILITIES:
- Master's Degree in related field
- Ability to engage in organizational decision making regarding strategic priorities, potential challenges and opportunities.
- Ability to ensure program budgets stay on track and program staff effectively manage and utilize funds.
- Ability to participate in publications, grant applications, and reports through collaborative writing.
- Ability to collaborate closely with the Executive Director to identify partnership and funding opportunities and promote relationship building among MHRC and other organizations, agencies, and/or individuals.
- Ability to serve as programmatic liaison to external partners, including representing MHRC at community meetings and events.
- Ability to work and communicate effectively with people of diverse backgrounds.
- Strong writing and public speaking skills.
- Thorough knowledge of Microsoft office suite, data management systems, and social media strategies.

- Bilingual, fluency in English and one additional language preferred.
- Demonstrated ability to work on deadline, be highly organized, and maintain accountability and strong communication with others in collaborative projects.
- Strong project management skills managing complex and multifaceted projects.
