About TALS

What is TALS?

The Tennessee Alliance for Legal Services (TALS) is a statewide nonprofit organization committed to:

- Empowering its constituencies, especially those in need
- Providing visionary and effective leadership
- Serving the public interest by improving access to civil legal assistance
- Promoting and modeling diversity and inclusiveness
- Advocating for justice for those in need
- Advancing collaboration and building consensus among providers of legal services for the common good

Our Vision

Equal Access to Justice in Tennessee

Our Mission

TALS strengthens the delivery of civil legal help to vulnerable Tennesseans. We do this by:

- Serving as a statewide coordination point for civil justice issues
- Educating policy makers, advocates and the public about civil legal issues
- Connecting vulnerable Tennesseans with civil legal help
- Expanding financial resources and awareness of TALS and the equal justice community

Who We Serve

Facts about Tennesseans with low-income who are served by legal aid services:

- 6 out of 10 households who experienced at least one civil legal problem took some action to resolve the problem.

- Problems with medical bills or health insurance was the most frequently reported problem in 2014
- Affording a place live was the most frequently reported civil legal problem for respondents under 30 years old
- 60% of people reported having access to the internet

Report from the Statewide Comprehensive Legal Needs Survey for 2014, UT SWORPS.

Board of Directors

The TALS' board of directors comprises a broad spectrum of individuals throughout the legal community. The board has included representatives from various Tennessee bar associations, the Tennessee Bar Foundation, federally-funded legal aid organizations, other public interest organizations, law schools, legal clinics, and the private bar.
