Congratulations to Dean Doug Blaze!

University of Tennessee College of Law Dean Doug Blaze, a long-time TALS board member and former Chair, has been named the 2012 recipient of the Deborah Rhode Award, given each year by the Association of American Law Schools to a dean or faculty member who has made an “outstanding contribution to increasing pro bono and public service opportunities in law schools through scholarship, leadership, and service.”

We congratulate Dean Blaze on this national honor and thank him for his good work for the State of Tennessee.

Congratulations Doug !
