NCRC Hosts free "Low-Cost and Pro Se Divorce Mediation" course

The Nashville Conflict Resolution Center is hosting a lunch and learn on Low-Cost and Pro Se Divorce Mediation on Tuesday, June 11, 2013. This event is free to the public and eligible for continuing mediation education (CME) credit. The course will use case examples from both Spanish and English language programs for analysis and will focus on what the low income population of Nashville can do to become divorced if they cannot afford a lawyer.

The course runs from noon until 1:15pm and will be held at West End United Methodist Church, 2200 West End Ave., Nashville, TN 37203, McWhirter Hall (on the ground floor). For parking and other information, visit the event page here.
