

Tennessee Alliance for Legal Services

Strengthening the Delivery of Civil Legal Help to Vulnerable Tennesseans

www.tals.org

TALS Board Member Receiveing Association for Women Attorney's Award

Tennessee Alliance for Legal Services' (TALS) Board Member Linda Warren Seely will receive the Marion Griffin-Frances Loring Award from the Association for Women Attorney's Annual Banquet on January 23, 2014. The Marion Griffin-Frances Loring Award recognizes outstanding achievement in the legal profession. Warren Seely is the Director of Private Attorney Involvement for Memphis Area Legal Services, Inc. and has worked in legal services for more than thirty years. To read more about Warren Seely and the Association for Women Attorney's Annual Banquest, see the Memphis Daily News article here.

Printed: August 12, 2022

<http://www.tals.org/node/644/tals-board-member-receiveing-association-women-attorneys-award>

©Tennessee Alliance for Legal Services