

Tennessee Alliance for Legal Services

Strengthening the Delivery of Civil Legal Help to Vulnerable Tennesseans

www.tals.org

Official Call for EJU Presenters closes Friday, 5/15

TALS is currently seeking Continuing Legal Education presentations for this year's Equal Justice University conference. We invite you to submit a proposal for a speaking opportunity by Friday, May 15, 2015.

We request proposals for:

- High-level, area specific litigation courses
- High-quality Ethics & Professional training
- Session proposals are also welcome in the areas of communications and technology that increase the capacity to serve clients.
- Trainings that cover the substantive law areas in which legal services attorneys and advocates practice including:
 - Health/Benefits/DCS Law
 - Employment Law
 - Housing/Consumer Law
 - Family Law
 - Immigration/Refugee Law
 - Special Education/Juvenile Justice Law

Requests and suggestions for specific training topics that would be helpful to you are also welcome. Please send abstracts or requests (just a paragraph or outline will be fine) to Anne Fox, TALS Policy & Training Director at afox@tals.org.

Printed: August 5, 2020

<http://www.tals.org/node/881/official-call-eju-presenters-closes-friday-515>

©Tennessee Alliance for Legal Services